WMed Welcomes New Class of 2019
Medical school administration and faculty welcomed the second class of medical students on Monday, August 10. This second class of 60 joins the inaugural class of 54 who recently transitioned into the second year of medical school. Read More...

New Women in Medicine and Science Group
The Women in Medicine and Science (WIMS) group at WMed is focused on promoting the recruitment, retention, and advancement of women in medicine and science. Read More...

WMed Clinics Enjoy Successful AFIX Site Visit
Each year, WMed primary care clinics undergo a site visit by the State of Michigan to evaluate the immunization processes provided in the primary care clinics; our Family Medicine, Medicine-Pediatrics, and Pediatrics clinics had a successful site visit, ... Read More...
What Do Our WMED Award-Winning Teachers Think
On August 17, a dozen of the 2015 WMED Teaching Award Winners met to discuss the attributes and activities that their students and residents consider important for their learning. Read More...

Faculty Appointed to New Program in Medical Ethics, Humanities, and Law
Tyler Gibb, JD, PhD and Michael Redinger, MD, MA will lead WMED's new Program in Medical Ethics, Humanities & Law. This multidisciplinary academic program will focus on historical, perennial, and emerging issues relating to the practice of modern medicine. Read More...

Three New Directors Join WMED Center for Clinical Research
The new WMED Center for Clinical Research welcomes three new directors. Read More...